If an employee receives a series of reprimands which appear to be leading to the suspension or termination of that employee, the Employer shall discuss the matter with the President of the Union or designate.
- (c) An employee may be reprimanded, suspended, demoted or discharged but only for proper and sufficient cause. The employee and the Union shall be promptly notified in writing, by the Employer, with reasons for the action.

- (b) After thirty (30) months, an employee may request removal of disciplinary reports provided that there have been no further reports issued or disciplinary action taken within the thirty (30) month period.

18. SENIORITY

- (a) Seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit based on the Seniority List dated October 22, 2004. Commencing October 23, 2004, seniority will be calculated on the basis of paid service and shall be prorated based on the percentage of full-time employment. This will first be reported on the April 2005 Seniority List.
- (b) Where two (2) or more employees are appointed to permanent staff at the same time and those employees have equal seniority, the order of placement of the names on the seniority list shall be by alphabetical order of the last name.

The full cost of the EPS PEC course, including textbooks, shall be paid by the Employer.

(f) 5th Class Power Engineering Certificate

All Division 'A' Custodial employees shall have the opportunity to be enrolled in a 5th Class Power Engineering Certificate course. - (a) When a new position is created within the bargaining unit or when a vacancy occurs, which shall include the resignation of an incumbent from a position within the bargaining unit, or when a position is amended to increase from part-time to full-time equivalent, the Employer shall immediately notify the Union in writing and send notice of the new or amended position or vacancy to the custodial staff for posting in each work site for a minimum of five (5) working days so that all employees will have reasonable opportunity to become aware of the vacancy or new or amended position.

- (b) Vacant positions shall normally be posted no later than five (5) working days following the date the vacancy occurs, except that unexpected vacancies that occur during the school summer recess will be posted immediately following the first normal instructional day of the school year.
- (c) Such notice for positions inside the bargaining unit shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, size of work site, number of custodial staff presently in the work site, shift, and wage or salary category in accordance with the collective agreement.
- (d) No outside advertisement for any vacancy within the bargaining unit shall be placed until the applications of present employees have been considered. Job postings shall be bid twice internally before an external candidate can be considered.
- (e) When an employee is assigned to a vacant position in order to be accommodated under the Alberta Human Rights Act, the position shall not be considered a vacancy and posting requirements under this Article shall not apply.

21. PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

- (a) Both parties recognize that job opportunity, including opportunity for promotion should increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in making staff changes, transfers or promotions, appointments shall be made on the basis of qualifications, performance and seniority as defined in Article 18. In the event that two (2) employees are considered relatively equal in qualifications and performance, seniority shall be the deciding factor.
- (b) An employee who accepts a position outside the bargaining unit within Edmonton Public Schools shall be given the option in writing to be placed on a leave of absence for up to one calendar year, with a copy provided to the Union. During this leave, the employee will continue to accrue seniority within the bargaining unit on the condition that the employee continues to pay Union dues. Such an employee shall have the right to return to their former position within one calendar year.

If the Employer determines that it is necessary to fill any subsequent vacant position(s) in the bargaining unit, they shall be posted as temporary positions. Employees occupying the resulting temporary position(s) shall have the right to return to their original position.

- (c) In the filling of unexpected vacancies, the Employer may temporarily transfer employees in the interests of efficiency. Such transfers shall not exceed six (6) months in duration. In the event the vacancy is caused by the resignation or death of an employee, Article 20 shall apply.

- (d) If a temporarily transferred employee is replacing an employee who is absent as a result of illness, the temporary transfer may be extended for a further six (6) months.
- (e) At the end of this twelve (12) month period, the position shall be declared vacant and the Employer shall post the vacancy.
- (f) Permanent employees temporarily assigned to a higher classification, for a minimum of three (3) working days, shall be eligible for the rate of pay of the higher classification. The higher rate of pay shall be retroactive to the first day of the assignment. Employees temporarily assigned to a lower classification shall continue to receive their regular rate of pay.

Spare employees' eligibility shall be limited to those incumbents who possess a Building Operator 'A' or 4th Class Certificate and are assigned to a site in excess of 100,000 sq. ft.

- (g) Employees returning from leave after their positions have been declared vacant will be placed in the first available position consistent with their qualifications.
- (h) An employee who has successfully bid on a position cannot apply for a similar position as defined in Article 2 and Article 3 for a period of ninety (90) calendar days from the date of completion of the probationary or trial period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this restriction will not apply in the case where an employee has been declared surplus and, in exceptional circumstances, may be waived provided that the Union is notified in writing.
- (i) When an employee is demoted, for culpable or non-culpable reasons, by the Employer to a position with a lower basic rate of pay, the employee's basic rate of pay shall be frozen for twelve (12) months or until the basic rate of pay for the new position is equal to or greater than the employee's previous basic rate of pay, whichever comes first.

22. TRIAL PERIOD

- (a) Promotions shall be subject to a trial period of up to ninety (90) calendar days. The trial period may be extended by the number of days of the summer recess. Any extension of the trial period and the reasons will be communicated in writing to the affected employee.
- (b) Transfers shall be subject to a trial period of up to ninety (90) calendar days in the first thirty-six (36) months of employment only. The trial period may be extended by the number of days of the summer recess. Any extension of the trial period and the reasons will be communicated in writing to the affected employee. Transfers after thirty-six (36) months of employment are not subject to Articles 22(c) and 22(d).

- (c) An employee who is promoted or transferred to another position within the bargaining unit and, in the opinion of the Employer, has been unsuccessful during the trial period, shall be returned to the employee's former position if it is available. If the employee's former position is not available, the Employer will transfer the employee to a mutually agreeable available position equivalent in pay. If there are no mutually agreeable available positions, then they shall be returned to their former position. Any other employee displaced as a result of this process shall receive the same entitlement as described above. Employees shall not lose seniority as a result of this process.
- (d) If an employee who is promoted or transferred to another position within the bargaining unit concludes, during the trial period, that the position is not suitable, the employee shall provide the Employer with the reasons in writing why the position is not suitable and the Employer shall return the employee to the employee's former position if it is available. If the employee's former position is not available, the Employer will transfer the employee to a mutually agreeable position equivalent in pay as soon as possible.
- (e) Notwithstanding Articles 22(c), 22(d) and 21(b), a Head Custodian who transfers to a position as a result of the closure of a site and is unsuccessful during the trial period in the new position shall be transferred to the Spares Board pending appointment to another Head Custodian position.

* 23. LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

- (a) A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the work force and shall include reduction from full-time to part-time status.
- (b)
  - (i) In the event layoffs become necessary, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority in their respective divisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, when an employee's position has been identified as surplus and the employee is identified for transfer, such employee will be provided with two (2) weeks written notice and: will first be placed, in order of seniority, into a vacant position with the same classification, FTE, 10/12 month status and with the same hourly rate of pay. Where there is no suitable vacant position available, the employee shall have the right to first bump into the least senior employee's position in the same classification provided that position carries an equal or lesser salary without a reduction of hours of work. The Board shall provide the Union and employees who are to be laid off or bumped two (2) weeks written notice or pay in lieu of notice for the employee.
  - (ii) In all cases of layoff or bumping, suitable vacancies shall be utilized prior to an individual exercising bumping rights.

- (c) The least senior employee who is bumped from their position and is identified for layoff, and has not been given two (2) weeks' notice, will be transferred to the supply list for up to two (2) weeks without loss of salary and benefits while actively providing service to the supply list.
- (d) Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority provided they are qualified to do the work.
- (e) New employees shall not be hired until those laid off within the previous one hundred twenty (120) calendar days have been given the opportunity to recall. Employees recalled within the one hundred twenty (120) calendar day period will not suffer any loss in seniority. STEP 5

The parties may mutually agree to non-binding mediation:

- (a) After receipt of the decision of the Superintendent of Schools, under Step 4 above, within fourteen (14) calendar days either party may request that a Mediator be appointed to meet with the parties, investigate and define the issues in dispute and facilitate a resolution.
- (b) The Mediator shall be appointed by mutual agreement between the parties.
- (c) The purpose of the Mediator's involvement in the grievance process is to assist the parties in reaching a resolution of the dispute, and anything said, proposed, generated or prepared for the purpose of trying to achieve a settlement is to be considered privileged. During the proceedings, the parties shall fully disclose all materials and information relevant to the issue(s) in dispute.
- (d) The expenses of the Mediator shall be equally borne by both parties.
- (e) The grievance may be resolved by mutual agreement between the parties. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of first meeting the parties, having considered the issue(s) in dispute and the terms of the collective agreement, the Mediator shall issue a report including non-binding recommendations.

STEP 6

Failing satisfactory settlement under Step 4 and/or Step 5, either party may, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the reply of the Superintendent of Schools, and/or the Mediator, request in writing the establishment of an Arbitration Board to resolve the dispute as provided in the Labour Relations Code.

STEP 7

Each party shall appoint one member as its representative on the Arbitration Board within seven (7) calendar days of such notice. The members so appointed shall endeavor to select an independent Chairman. If the members fail to select an independent Chairman within twenty-one (21) calendar days after the day on which the last of the two (2) members were appointed, they shall request the Director Mediation Services to select the Chairman. The Arbitration Board shall provide a decision within thirty (30) calendar days following the date that it hears the grievance.

The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference and shall issue an award in writing. The decision shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of a majority is the award of the Arbitration Board but if there is no majority, the decision of the Chairman governs and it shall be deemed to be the award of the Board.

Each party to the difference shall bear the expense of its respective appointee to the Arbitration Board and the two (2) parties shall bear equally the expenses of the Chairman.

The Arbitration Board by its decision shall not alter, amend or change the terms of the collective agreement.

Where the dispute involves an employee who has been suspended or dismissed, the Arbitration Board may:

- (a) (i) direct the Employer to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to the wage loss by reason of the suspension, or dismissal or such lesser sum as, in the opinion of the Board, is fair and reasonable, or;
- (ii) make such other directive varying the penalty as it considers fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of the collective agreement.
- (b) The Union, through its representatives, shall have the right to originate a grievance for an employee or group of employees and seek adjustment with the Board in the manner provided in the grievance procedure.
- (c) Should the Board wish to initiate a grievance, the Superintendent of Schools shall submit the grievance to the Recording Secretary of the Union indicating the particulars of the complaint and redress sought. The Superintendent shall arrange a meeting with the Union table officers within seven (7) calendar days to arrive at a satisfactory settlement. The table officers shall have seven (7) calendar days in which to render a decision in writing. Failing satisfactory settlement, the Board shall have seven (7) calendar days to request, in writing, the establishment of an Arbitration Board to resolve the dispute as provided in the Labour Relations Code.

- (d) Nothing in this Article shall prevent both parties from mutually agreeing in writing to extend the limitations of time referred to in the various sub-Articles. Should the responding party fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance will automatically move to the next step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit.

34. JOINT HEALTH & SAFETY COMMITTEE

- (b) Either party wishing to amend or terminate this agreement shall give notice in writing of such desire to the other party not less than sixty (60) days or more than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to August 31st of any subsequent year.
- (c) If notice to negotiate, following any notice to terminate, has been given by either party prior to date of such termination, or if notice to amend has been given by either party, this agreement shall remain in full force and effect until a new agreement has been reached, or until the expiration of seventy-two (72) hours after notice of strike or lockout has been served by either of the parties, whichever shall occur first.
- (d) Any conclusion reached in the aforementioned negotiations may, if so agreed, be made retroactive to the said anniversary date or the said termination date.
